The finest of London life

Buyers looking to own a new home in the north west London area should look no further, as Glentree Estates and Albany Homes International celebrate the launch of West Heath Place, a collection of luxury homes on Finchley Road.

Providing a range of stunning apartments, penthouses and a unique cottage, West Heath Place offers London living at its finest, ideal for professionals, young couples or families alike, and setting a new standard for the NW11.

Designed by renowned architect Igal Yawetz, West Heath Place is a collection of 48 two, three and four-bedroom apartments and penthouses which features a striking contemporary exterior that has been built to complement the surrounding area.

Offering the finest of London life, West Heath Place features a concierge, on site gym, underground parking, CCTV and excellent transport links into central London, giving buyers modern living in an ideal location.

Every apartment features either a terrace or balcony, some of which are over 1000 sq ft, almost as big as the apartments, making them ideal for entertaining and outside living, while the development sits within landscaped grounds and communal gardens.

All of the homes at West Heath Place feature a high specification throughout, with oak engineered flooring to the entrance hall and living rooms, built-in custom wardrobes to the master bedroom and second bedroom and, in a selection of apartments; fully fitted walk in wardrobes are provided to the dressing rooms.

The luxurious designer kitchens come with Poggenpohl custom made cabinetry, Miele appliances, granite worktops, glass splashbacks and porcelain floor tiles. All the homes have an integrated dish washer, fridge/freezer, oven and microwave and either a washer/dryer in the kitchen or a separate washing machine and tumble dryer in the utility room.

The stunning bathrooms offer the very best in modern design, complete with Villeroy and Boch sanitary ware with Vado chrome fittings, Duarvit baths with mirrored bath panels, wall hung wood veneer vanities with stone tops and even an aqua television, while walk in wet rooms feature clear glass screens.

Ideally located, West Heath Place is close to central London, with a variety of entertainment, social, cultural and leisure activities on its doorstep.

Prices start from £795,000 for a two-bedroom apartment. The show apartment is open seven days a week from 10am to 5pm by appointment only. Please call 0208 201 8780.
